Outreach Specialist- Part Time (approximately 20 hrs/ week)

Peter's Place is a center for grieving children and families located in Radnor, PA. In addition to on-site support groups, Peter's Place offers a growing outreach program that provides education about grief and loss and supportive services to communities who have experienced a death. Peter's Place is seeking a dedicated professional to lead our outreach program.

The Outreach Specialist will be responsible for delivering educational and support services based on requirements set forth in various grants that fund the efforts. Additional responsibilities include developing and marketing new programs.

The position requires a master's degree in psychology, social work, or other related field. The successful candidate will have at least one year working in the field of bereavement, excellent working knowledge of key issues for bereaved children and adults, and knowledge of current literature on the topic.

The position also requires strong teaching and training skills, excellent interpersonal skills, and the ability to work effectively and respectfully with diverse audiences. In addition, due to record keeping requirements, strong organizational and analytical skills are a must.

Most programs take place outside the office during normal working hours. Must have a car and the ability to occasionally schedule services on short notice.
